Student Loans Three Cornered Fight for GOP Leadership May Get 4th Entry

WASHINGTON (AP) — House leaders and President Nixon face increased costs if the house fails to deliver on a promise to boost interest on government-guaranteed student loans.

Members opposed to high interest rates and another group that wants Congress to deal firmly with student rioters teamed up before today's scheduled vote to try to block the raise.

The high interest foes, led by Rep. Wright Patman, D-Tex., fought to kill the bill outright. The anti-riot forces aimed to block its passage in order to force consideration of an amendment cutting off federal aid to students involved in campus uprisings.

Convinced that if the bill gets involved in the campus unrest controversy it will never be enacted, Rep. Carl D. Perkins, D-Ky., its manager, called it up today under a procedure preventing any amendments from being offered, but requiring a two-thirds majority for passage.

The House leaders concern arose because foes needed to muster only one vote more than one-third in opposition. Assured by congressional leaders the bill would pass early in September, Nixon urged the bankers to make loans carrying the 7 per cent rate fixed by law to students who need the money now to enter college. Since the prime interest rate went to 8 1/2 per cent banks have shown little interest in the program.

Reports coming to the U.S. Office of Education indicate the banks are responding to Nixon's plea. This left it up to the House to deliver the bill, which already has passed the Senate.

Labor Market Survey Is Discussed

To obtain an accurate picture of the labor market in Hempstead County Questionnaires will be sent out in a county-wide survey the week of September 22, the Hope Rotary Club learned at its weekly luncheon meeting in the Town and Country on September 12. Walter Allen of Hot Springs, who is with the area and community development section of the Employment Security Division, told the Rotarians that the first two considerations an industry has are the location of site and the potential labor available.

Teddy Jones, manager of the local ESD office, introduced the speaker, and later, he explained the necessity of community support for the survey. Eventually, a great many will benefit from this data. The program was arranged by Earl O'Neal.

President Benny Coleman welcomed those present, including one visiting Rotarian, Tom Callan of Nashville, and a guest, Lee Smiley of Little Rock.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The three cornered fight for the Senate Republican leadership could take on a new dimension if Gordon Allott of Colorado decides he wants the job vacated by the death of Everett M. Dirksen.

Before Allott's decision, which he said would come today, there were three candidates; acting Leader Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, who's supported by GOP liberals, conservative Roman L. Hruska of Nebraska and Howard H. Baker of Tennessee. Dirksen's son-in-law who is pushing a broad spectrum position.

However a decision to seek the leadership by Baker, a Senate first-term, was seen as possibly splitting away some conservative support otherwise figured to go to Hruska.

Whatever the final field it will undoubtedly take more than one ballot to settle the issue. Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, chairman of the GOP conference, has not yet announced a date for the caucus at which Republican senators will elect a new leader. It will take a majority of the 42 Republicans now in the Senate.

Scott said Sunday he had indications 20 senators favor him for the job with seven or eight other possibilities.

The Pennsylvanian also said a possibility exists of avoiding a fight altogether for the post if GOP senators decide such a battle might split the party.

Scott was interviewed Sunday on NBC's "Meet the Press" radio-television program.

Scott, 68, and Hruska, 65, are the veterans; Baker, 43, and midway through his first Senate term, is the newcomer.

Scott said his interest is not in misleading ideological labels but in effective Republican action. Hruska called himself "a representative of the broad middle ground," and stressed loyalty to President Nixon.

Baker said he is liberal on some issues, conservative on others, and can attract support from all segments of the party.

While his senior rivals stressed their experience, Baker, Dirksen's son-in-law, said he could offer the party a new face and reinforce the youth image within the GOP.

The job they seek pays $49,500 a year, offers an ornate office off the Senate floor and a black limousine.

The office of minority leader is not necessarily one of power, that depends on the man who holds it. Dirksen, who died Sept. 7, was a powerful figure in that position.

March Has Been Delayed Indefinitely

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Blaming racial problems in the state, leaders of a proposed "poor people's march" announced Saturday that the march had been postponed indefinitely.

The march from West Memphis to Little Rock had been scheduled for late last month, but it was postponed for 30 days. It was announced at that time that if Negro grievances were satisfied, the march would not be held.

The Revs. Cato Brooks and J. F. Cooley, cochairmen of the Committee for Peaceful Coexistence, and the Rev. V. Castle Stewart, troubleshooter for the committee, announced postponement of the march Saturday at a news conference on the steps of the Capitol.

The three said their decision to postpone the march was based on problems at Forrest City, Hot Springs, McNeil and other areas.

The schools at McNeil were closed Thursday, but are to be reopened today.

Perry Polk, president of the McNeil School Board, said the schools had been closed because of a "little disturbance."

Brooks said Saturday that Negroes had been picketing the schools because of overcrowding brought on by desegregation of grades nine through 12 at North School, a predominantly white school.

Four Killed on Arkansas Highways

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Four persons were killed in traffic accident on the Arkansas highways during the 54-hour weekend period.

The Associated Press death count began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday. All four victims were killed Sunday, including two in a one-car accident six miles north of Batesville, State Police said.

Mike Hill, 19, and Steve Lee, 21, both of Batesville, were killed when the car in which they were riding overturned. The driver of the car, John T. Baker, 17, of Batesville, was in fair condition at a Batesville hospital.

J. D. Hendricks, 53, of Waldo was killed when the pickup truck he was driving went out of control and struck a culvert about two miles west of Waldo on a county road.

Jeff Davis Newton Jr., 25, of Hampton was killed when the car he was driving overturned in a ditch five miles south of Hampton on U.S. 167.

Pryor Tells Why Party Is Suffering

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Rep. David Pryor, D-Ark., says the Democratic party in Arkansas has been suffering because of the structure of the party for the past several years.

He told a Democratic rally of about 500 persons here Saturday that "we really haven't had a political party here for several generations."

"What we have had has been a mere 'personality cult' centered around one or two people, patterned from the prevailing sentiment at the time, dedicated to good government, yes, but primarily dedicated to only a few and not the many doing the governing," he said.

"The truth was, we really didn't need a political party in those days," Pryor said. "It was not healthy. It did not provide the impetus nor the inspiration for new membership or leadership. It did not encourage grass roots participation at the local level. Today, as a result, we suffer."

He also said that Democrats had become their own worst enemy.

"Our problem is that after the public butchering, the blood letting, the back-biting and vicious primary campaigns we wage in our summer primaries, that by the time November rolls around, even the mothers of the nominees must find it difficult to claim enough kin to vote Democratic," he said.

"It is for this reason that I say in the past we have been our own worst enemy," he said. "The people are tired of it. They no longer buy mud slinging, negativism."

He said the people wanted solutions and not slogans.

"They no longer want to hear what's wrong with others—but what's right with us," Pryor said.

"No longer can we afford the simple luxury of resting on laurels or accentuating someone's faults," he said.

Confirmation of Haynsworth Seems Likely

By JOHN CHADWICK

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite opposition from civil rights and labor leaders, all signs now indicate President Nixon's nomination of Judge Clement F. Haynsworth Jr. for the Supreme Court will be confirmed by the Senate.

Senate Judiciary Committee hearings starting Tuesday could change the picture, but so far no organized effort has developed within the Senate to block approval of the 56-year-old South Carolinian.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., who indicated he probably will vote against the nomination, has nonetheless predicted Haynsworth will be confirmed—and others not enthusiastic about the appointment agree.

The Haynsworth nomination also has picked up the far-from-enthusiastic support of Sen. Robert Griffin, R-Mich., who spearheaded last year's successful fight to keep Abe Fortas from becoming chief justice.

"If you think my silence until now has been interpreted as meaning that I am not overjoyed by the appointment," Griffin said Sunday at Mackinac Island, Mich., "you're absolutely right."

"But on the basis of all the knowledge I have today, I predict that Judge Haynsworth's appointment will be confirmed with my support."

Acting Senate GOP leader Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania also indicated Sunday he might back the nomination, but for the moment would reserve judgment.

He spoke on the NBC TV-radiation See Confirmation (On Page Two)

Nixon's initial 25,000-man cut-back was completed last month; One phase of the withdrawal moved U.S. Army units out of the Mekong Delta. U.S. military spokesmen said as the Americans moved out, North Vietnamese troops in the delta doubled in number, to between 2,000 and 3,000 men.

One Viet Cong regiment of 1,000 to 1,500 men—most of them North Vietnamese—moved into the delta in April, the spokesmen said. Another regiment from the North Vietnamese army reportedly slipped into the area during the summer months as two brigades of the U.S. 9th Infantry Division were pulling out to go home. Green Forrest to Vote Tues.

GREEN FOREST, Ark. (AP) — Residents of Green Forest are to go to the polls Tuesday to consider a $130,000 bond issue that would be combined with a federal grant to improve the city's water and sewer system.

The Nashville News is a semi-weekly newspaper which normally goes to press on Monday and Thursday for issues dated Tuesday and Friday — except for this week, when the Tuesday edition will be skipped. And for the best of all reasons. As Editor and Publisher Lewis Graves explained in last Friday's paper, The News this week-end is moving its plant and office to a new and larger building. Moving of machinery began as soon as the press run was completed for last Friday's edition, on Thursday; this Tuesday's edition will be omitted, and publication will resume with production this Thursday for the edition dated Friday, Sept. 19. Except for the multi-plant metropolitan newspapers it is almost impossible for a paper to change locations without missing an issue. The Star is a daily and we thought we had whipped the impossible in 1932 when we arranged to move from the old S. Main Street site to our present one on S. Walnut — without missing an edition. But it rained, the ropes which were inching along our 12 1/2-ton press broke like shoestrings — and we had to appeal to the State Highway Department for a bigger truck and steel cables. We got the press into the new building, but not in time to align it over the press pit — and we missed one issue on the week-end.

Our sympathy to Louis Graves in a difficult hour — but also our congratulations on providing the Nashville News with a new and larger home.

Chancellor Royce Weisenberger sends me a tear-sheet from the Dallas Sunday News of Sept. 7 carrying a feature article and picture on John Randolph, formerly general manager of Corn Belt Hatcheries, Hope.

The Dallas newspaper reports that Mr. Randolph now owns more Dairy Queen franchises than any other individual in the United States. He operates 18 in the Dallas-Richardson-Plano area, 4 more in San Angelo, and is a partner in a venture which owns 20 in Houston. His latest move is a merger which will bring 62 Texas Dairy Queens into a single corporation, with himself as president. The company has annual sales of 5 millions, and a net worth of about 2 millions.

Mr. Randolph now lives in Richardson, on the north side of Dallas.

The stock-selling drive in behalf of Hempstead County Industrial Foundation, Inc., is at the halfway mark toward its goal of an additional $25,000 capital. I learn in a letter received by contributors from Thomas E. Hays, Jr., chairman of the Share Sale Committee.

In addition to new stock purchased by 41 original shareholders the Foundation has commitments from 43 firms and persons making their first contribution. Said Mr. Hays' letter: "Additional purchases (of stock) must be made if we are to reach our goal to raise funds to pay for improving the industrial site north of town and to purchase additional property in which new industries have expressed interest. The Foundation's intentions are not to give this property to industry, but to make improvements that will entice new business and recover this expense through sale of sites."

"Your willingness to help Hope and Hempstead county was indicated by your original pledge and again I hope you will contact Mr. Holt at the Chamber of Commerce office if you have not done so."

Auto Makers Against Any Price Tags

By KARL MANTYLA
Associated Press Writer
DETROIT (AP) — Auto makers readied a sharp rebuttal today to a government charge that the price stickers on new cars may deceive buyers.

General Motors, Chrysler, Ford and American Motors— which sell more than 8 million cars a year—are expected to tell the Federal Trade Commission, in hearings opening Tuesday in Washington, that the window stickers carrying manufacturers' suggested retail prices actually improve the bargaining position of new car buyers.

The FTC says that under present practice "manufacturers may be engaged in direct misrepresentation of prices as well as placing in the hands of dealers the means and instrumentality for deceiving consumers as to savings at the retail level."

The sticker price notices required by a 1958 law, the Monroney Act, purport to show a base price for the car plus itemized prices on equipment.

Automakers formulate their suggested retail prices on a base factory cost of a car, adding a percentage to give an annual return on capital and another sum for a dealer discount. The dealer discount usually ranges between 17 and 25 percent, depending on the car model.

Chrysler Corp., in a 38-page brief filed with the commission, said that "if, as the commission's notice suggests, the sticker price is to reflect in every instance the 'prevailing price' in each market, the consumer no longer will be able to bargain over the price of the new vehicle or his trade-in."

Some units are sold at or above sticker prices, Chrysler said, adding: "As to sales at other prices, the retail purchaser realizes that the manufacturer's suggested retail price is merely the starting point from which the bargaining will begin, as the Congress expected it to be."

A lawsuit charging that sticker prices are misleading was filed in July by the State of California against General Motors. The suit seeks $750 million in fines.

More than a score of witnesses have asked to be heard at the committee hearings Chairman James O. Eastland, D-Miss., said he expects to take two or three days.

Haynsworth has been a judge on the 4th U.S. Appeals Court in Richmond, Va., since 1957, when he was confirmed by the Senate without opposition. He became chief judge of the court in 1964.

The White House, in announcing Aug. 18 the nomination to fill the court vacancy created by the resignation under fire of Fortas, said Nixon feels Haynsworth "has demonstrated judicial temperament, balance, impartiality and fairness."

However, in a letter to senators, Roy Wilkins, executive director of the NAACP and chairman of the Leadership Conference on Civil Rights, said "the constitutional rights of millions of Americans will be less se-

Kidnap Victim Kept His Cool, Police Say

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — "He kept his cool and didn't make any funny or sudden moves," said the police chief admiringly of the kidnap victim.

"I cannot explain my son's activities," said the mother of the man arrested in the kidnaping. "I don't know what in the world I would say to Alan Ramo's family."

Ramo, 19, was rescued unharmed by police after being abducted from in front of his home by a masked gunman Saturday and handcuffed to a tree in nearby canyon area for eight hours.

The youth is the son of Simon Ramo, missile expert and one of the founders of TRW, Inc., a billion-dollar aerospace firm.

John Jacob Santen, 23, a merchant seaman from San Lorenzo, Calif., faced arraignment today in the kidnaping.

Young Ramo was found by police about an hour after Dr. Ramo discovered a ransom note under the front door of his home. It demanded $200,000 for Alan's release.

Dr. Ramo was talking to police when officers reported that the youth was safe, Police Chief Joseph Kimble said. Alan had been gagged, but he had worked the gag free and his cries for help were heard by city water and power custodians working nearby, Kimble said.

The area was staked out after Ramo said his kidnaper told him he would return before nightfall with food, the chief said.

Santen was arrested when he approached the tree in the remote area wearing a mask and gloves and carrying a drawn .38-caliber revolver, police said.

Detective Richard Rodriguez, who took Alan's place at the tree, said he fired a warning shot over Santen's head and told him to drop his gun. Santen surrendered.

Santen's mother, Vida Santen of San Lorenzo, said she read about her son's arrest in a Sunday newspaper.

cure" if Haynsworth is confirmed.

Wholly aside from his philosophy, a question promises to be fully explored at the hearings is the conflict-of-interest charge raised against Haynsworth.

In 1963, he sided with a court majority in holding that Deering Milliken Inc., a textile chain, did not commit an unfair labor practice against the Textile Workers Union of America.

At the time Haynsworth had stock, later disposed of for nearly $450,000, in a vending machine company that serviced three Deering Milliken plants. After the decision the court found a conflicts-of-interest charge without foundation and expressed complete confidence in Haynsworth.

The then U.S. attorney general, Robert F. Kennedy, said "I share your expression of complete confidence in Judge Haynsworth."

Nonetheless, some critics contend Haynsworth should have disqualified himself because of his stock interest in the vending machine company.

Suez Coast Attacked by Israel

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Israeli planes attacked Egypt's Gulf of Suez coast for the fifth time in six days Sunday, keeping up a campaign to force the Egyptians to shift forces from the Suez Canal front.

An Israeli military spokesman said the air force bombed and strafed positions at Ras Za'farana, 55 miles south of the southern end of the canal, and Ras Gharib, an oil center 120 miles farther south. He said all the planes returned safely.

Egypt's official Middle East News Agency said Egyptian anti-aircraft gunners forced the Israeli planes "to flee eastwards after they attempted to raid coast guard posts in these areas."

The Cairo statement also said there was an eight-hour artillery duel Sunday near Port Taufiq, at the southern end of the canal. It gave no further details.

Ras Za'farana, the target of heavy Israeli raids for the past week, is 100 miles southeast of Cairo. When Israeli troops landed on the Gulf of Suez coast for their unopposed armored sweep last Tuesday, they began by hammering radar installations and army camps at Ras Za'farana.

Informants in Tel Aviv said the air attacks are continuing to keep Egypt from rebuilding these installations.

Israeli Defense Minister Moshe Dayan said Saturday the purpose of the strikes was "to immobilize (Egyptian) troops to guard those places... If they don't do it, that front will remain vulnerable and it will be possible to hit it again."

In other military action over the weekend, two Israeli soldiers were wounded when Arab guerrillas ambushed an army patrol on the occupied Golan Heights of Syria Sunday morning.

Says Thurmond Got Top Price for His Land

NEW YORK (AP) — When Sen. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., and his partner sold land condemned for a South Carolina highway last year, they received more than twice the price of other landowners along the route, Life magazine says.

In its current issue, Life said Thurmond and his former law associate, now a federal judge, received $492 an acre for 66 acres, while others got an average of $200 an acre.

Thurmond issued a statement in Washington Sunday night, terming the article "just another in a series of attempted liberal smears."

He said, "The entire transaction is a matter of public record, as I knew it would be from the beginning."

Life said it interviewed Thurmond, who said he thought the land was worth more than $750 an acre, but that he and his partner, U.S. District Judge Charles E. Simons Jr., accepted less to avoid going to court "because of the positions we held with the public."

The magazine said the 66 acres was part of a 3,000-acre tract of scrub timber land that Thurmond and Simons bought in 1953 for about $14.53 an acre.

Simons said Sunday, in Aiken, S.C., "We received no more than a fair price for the land—there is no question about that."

So you think all health care plans are pretty much alike. Think again!

We didn't get to be the most widely accepted and approved health care plan by being like the others. We did it by being different. And those differences pay off for you.

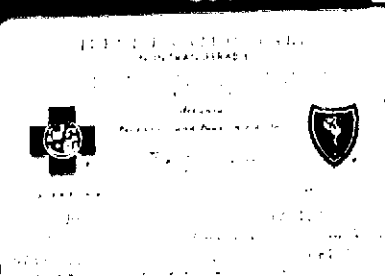

Take the way our benefits work. Most of our benefits are in the form of services. We pay for the services our members require, providing a built-in protection against rapidly rising health care costs. This makes Blue Cross and Blue Shield membership more valuable as each day passes, so it's no wonder nearly 390,000 Arkansans have joined us.

When you choose a health care plan to help you pay bills, look for the differences. There is nothing like Blue Cross and Blue Shield. Complete and mail the coupon below and make us prove it.

B&PW CLUB HEARS ABOUT BRITISH COUNTRY

The Hope B & PW Club enjoyed a verbal description of County Kent in the British Isles, when David Pearson, a native of England, spoke at the club's dinner meeting Thursday, September 11 at the Diamond. It was apparent that he still regarded that land as "home," and he described the beautiful countryside, the way of life, and told interesting facts. For instance, any community there—regardless of size—is classified as a city if it has a cathedral. But sharp contrasts are now found with an ancient Viking ship exhibited, a nuclear power plant producing, and a channel tunnel planned within a short distance of each other.

The World Affairs committee, Betty Jane Foster, chairman was in charge of arrangements. The speaker was introduced by Alice Kate Baker, and others on the committee were Velma Goss, Bonnie Beckworth, and Charlene Wiggins. Yellow mums, purple and red zinnias made a colorful centerpiece on the speaker's table.

President Mary Andrews had charge of the business meeting at which the club voted to give $25 toward the current promotion of giant Hope watermelons. An original B & PW Club song, recently uncovered by Marjorie Rogers was sung by all. The 35 present included 3 guests, Mrs. Lillie Pearson, Mrs. Mary Walker, and the speaker.

BRIDGE CLUB MEETS

The Heritage Bridge Club met Thursday, September 11 for a Dessert-Bridge at the home of Mrs. Emma Hatley. Cockscorn and other seasonal flowers made an attractive setting for the three tables of players.

High scorer for the afternoon was Mrs. C. C. Lewis, and second high was Mrs. R. P. Barlow. Tying for the game prize were Mrs. S. L. Murphy and Mrs. Marian Holder, while the consolation prize went to Mrs. H. C. Whitworth.

Coming, Going

Mary Anita Laseter visited Mrs. Buddy Sutton in Little Rock Saturday.

Susie Vinson, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Everett Vinson, underwent an emergency appendectomy last Friday in Jackson, Miss., where the Vinson family was visiting the James Vinson family. She is in Hines Memorial Hospital in Jackson.

During her stay in Rochester, Minn., while going through the Mayo Clinic, Mrs. G. B. Morris is at the Martin Hotel, Room 213.

Miss Jean Laseter, Hot Springs, was in Hope this weekend en route to Houston, Tex., and a check-up at the M. D. Anderson Clinic.

Wedding Vows Are Repeated

MR. AND MRS. BILLY DELANEY JR.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Formby announce the marriage of their daughter, Geneva, to Billy Delaney, Jr. The wedding was solemnized September 1 at 7 p.m. in the Liberty Baptist Church of Hope. Rev. Kenneth Barzar performed the double-ring ceremony. Vows were exchanged before an arch of greenery and baskets holding white magnolias.

Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Mildred Friday. Mrs. Tom Harwell soloist sang "The Lord's Prayer." She was accompanied by Tom Harwell.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of peau-a-sole fashioned with an empire bodice. The sleeves were encrusted with seed pearls. Her shoulder length veil fell from a peau-a-sole bow trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of miniature white carnations with streamers tied in love knots.

Miss Anita Sullivan served her twin sister as matron of honor. She wore a blue gown of satin with a blue velvet bow as her headpiece. She carried a bouquet of blue and white carnations.

Johnny Veatch served the groom as best man. Jimmy Rogers served as usher.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the home of the groom's parents, Mrs. Johnny Veatch and Mrs. Leslie Formby served the cake and punch.

After a short wedding trip, the couple are at home in Patmos.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

OF CARS AND MEAT AND INCOME TAX

Dear Helen: It's time legislators tightened rules governing automobile driving licenses.

Three cases which touched me recently provoke this letter. A young neighbor riding with a man subject to diabetic blackouts was killed when the older man cracked up his car. In fact, the driver was also killed.

Last week-end a 78-year-old, slightly inebriated to boot, ran into a vehicle in which the daughter of a friend of mine was riding. She came off with a broken arm, but her father, on hearing of the accident, promptly had a heart attack.

Another friend of mine whose hearing and sight are impaired has had a few minor accidents. She always said, "I like to live dangerously." When it was pointed out that perhaps others on the road did not share her philosophy, she finally began to consider giving up her license.

It seems to me that frequent physical re-testing of drivers might spare some lives and much heartache—and I mean in-depth testing if there is a history of any defect. Disabled people sometimes try to minimize their defects—and that goes for older people too. Pride often goes before a CRASH—ELEANOR

Dear Eleanor: How frighteningly true! Legislators, take note!

Dear Helen: I had a freezer full of meat, and only recently started buying meat at the market again. The prices floored me! Round steak that I had gotten for not over 89 cents a pound six months ago, is now up to $1.09—and that's on sale! Usually it's higher. All meat seems to have jumped at least 20 percent in just a few months.

Groceries have gone up just as much—and when I bought our kids' school clothes this year I went flat broke. They were several dollars per article higher! What I can't understand is: The government is trying to "curb inflation" by raising the interest rate—which means we can't buy a new house, and when we get furniture or anything on time, we pay at least 18 percent per year. But how is inflation being curbed when prices on necessities keep right on skyrocketing? Ever since the new interest rates were announced, we have had nothing but higher prices. And if that's not inflation, Mao-Tse-Tung is a Methodist missionary. —WHAT GIVES?

Dear W.G.: I'm not an economist, but I agree: There's something awfully wrong with anti-inflation measures which result in higher prices!

Why don't we ALL write to our Congressmen and get some answers?

(And while we're about it, let's demand the income tax reform they've been promising us for 10, these many years!) —H.

Dear Helen: Do you have any more of those proverb quizes left? I believe you called them "governmentese," as in "Precipitancy creates prodigality," ("Haste makes waste.") How can we get copies?—PARTY

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The van guard of the good guys in the white coats returned to network television Sunday night with NBC's premiere of "The Bold Ones." There will be more on the other networks soon.

The hour show, constructed around recent advances in surgery and medicine, built to its climax on the desperate need of one man for a kidney transplant and efforts to save the waning life of the accident victim who was the prospective donor.

Three dedicated doctors will be the continuing heroes of the hospital — oriented segments which will rotate with two other unrelated series under the single title, "The Bold Ones." Judging from the opening show, however, there will be important, inanimate stars—heart-lung machines, bypass pumps, computers and other gleaming tools in the new arsenal of healing.

The story, dressed beautifully in slick production, was pretty familiar under the trapping. A widower with four young children needs a new kidney if he is to survive. A young man is injured and appears to be dying. The family doctor won't give up on the life of his patient and the pressure builds.

At one point the dialogue skirted cautiously around the controversial definition of "the moment of death," but left the matter up in the air.

The show had a strange and somewhat unsatisfactory wind-up. The accident victim showed signs of improvement and underwent an emergency heart operation, but it was not known if he suffered brain damage. The hunt for a kidney donor was picked up again.

E. G. Marshall played the head of an ultra modern hospital with crisp authority. John Saxon and David Hartman are, respectively, the head surgeon and chief of medicine, and were properly dedicated and tense.

Earlier, "The Bill Cosby Show," with Bill playing a high school physical education teacher, joined the network's Sunday night lineup. The program, while it must be counted as a situation comedy, has the Cosby attitude and approach to humor that one finds in his specials and monologues.

The first show had Cosby, out jogging, pausing to answer an outside telephone and innocently becoming involved in a garage man's domestic squabbles and then getting picked up as a burglary suspect. That sounds routine for any situation comedy, but the comedian's special brand of understated wry humor set it quite apart.

It is a pleasant show, designed for chuckles rather than Recommended tonight: "My World and Welcome to It," NBC, premiere, 7:30-8 EDT, William Windom in a comedy combining cartoons and live actors and based on James Thurber's work and attitudes.

Wilhelm Is Hero in 3 Braves Wins

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

When, 25 years or so from now, they finally write Hoyt Wilhelm's pitching epitaph, they can call it The Old Man And The Knuckleball.

Wilhelm, who makes a baseball do tricks by digging his carefully-filled nails into its seams, came to Atlanta last week and in three appearances with the pennant-conscious Braves, he has one victory and two saves.

The victory for the 46-year-old reliever who is in his 18th major league season, came Sunday when Rico Carty rified a pair of home runs that gave the Braves a 3-2 triumph over Houston.

It was the sixth straight victory for Atlanta and left the Braves 1½ games in front of both Los Angeles and San Francisco in the sizzling National League West race.

The Dodgers and Giants both kept pace with the front-running Braves, who haven't lost since acquiring Wilhelm on waivers from California. Los Angeles knocked off San Diego 3-1 and San Francisco took Cincinnati 5-3.

New York retained its 3½-game lead in the East Division. The Mets lost to Pittsburgh 5-3 but lost no ground to Chicago, which dropped a 2-1 decision to St. Louis in 10 innings; Montreal ripped Philadelphia 7-2 in the other NL game Sunday.

In the American League, East Division champion Baltimore beat Cleveland 7-3. Chicago took a doubleheader from Oakland 12-8 and 9-8. Kansas City clipped Minnesota 4-3. California took Seattle 4-2. Detroit beat Washington 7-4 in 12 innings, and Boston edged New York 3-2.

Paul Richards, the Braves' vice president who picked up Wilhelm from the Angels, marveled at the old pitcher.

"Lee MacPhail (general manager of the New York Yankees) said Wilhelm would pitch until he's 50 and it looks like he will," said Richards.

With only four years to go, Wilhelm seems a cinch to make it. He's allowed just two hits in 4 2-3 innings in three appearances for the Braves. He was 5-7 with California.

Carty hit his 13th and 14th homer of the season—the second one a two-run shot with two out in the eighth that erased a 2-1 Houston lead.

It was the fourth straight loss for Houston and dropped the Astros 5½ games behind the Braves.

Jim Lefebvre drove in all of Los Angeles runs with a homer and a double as the Dodgers whipped San Diego on Don Sutton's four-hitter.

Sutton, who won his first game in a month, was touched only for a two-out ninth inning homer by Ollie Brown. The victory left the Dodgers one percentage point ahead of the Giants.

San Francisco beat Cincinnati on a two-out, tie-breaking single by Willie Mays in the seventh inning and 2 2-3 innings of hitless relief by Don McMahon.

Pinch hitter Bob Etheridge opened the seventh with a single and the Giants used two sacrifices to move him to third before Mays singled the run home. Hal Lanier singled another Giant run home in the eighth and Dick Dietz tagged a two-run homer for San Francisco.

Pittsburgh ended the Mets' 10-game winning streak with pitcher Steve Blass singling home the tie-breaking run in the seventh inning and Matty Alou following with another hit for an insurance run.

Bobcats Win Battle for Confidence

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

Winning a battle for confidence and pride, the Hope Bobcats whipped the arch-rival Prescott Curley Wolves 27-0 last Friday in the home opener at Hammons Stadium.

Before an estimated crowd of 4500-5000, the Bobcats asserted their domination on the second possession and never lost it again. The win evened Hope's record at 1-1 entering this week's preparations for DeQueen, and the Curley Wolves dropped to 0-2.

For the Bobcats, it was a vindication somewhat for the first 14-6 loss at Ashdown, and was the first win over Prescott since the 1965 season. However, Hope still has yet to post a comeback victory in a long time, and this confidence must be rebuilt.

A short punt gave the Cats the pigskin at the Prescott 39 midway in the first quarter, and the slashing runs of Artis Martin combined with the deceptive keepers by quarterback Ronnie Massanelli moved the drive along very effectively. Artis went over from the four with 4:27 on the clock for the first score, and Ronny Brown's placement made it 7-0.

Shortly thereafter another Bobcat offensive began at the Hope 46, and the second touchdown came long before Prescott made a single first down. Running several plays from a strong backfield set with flanker Roger Newton pulled into a halfback spot, Massanelli directed a series of sweeps, dives, and off-tackle slant that carried to the four-yard line.

From there Massanelli rolled right and threw his first TD pass of the year to end David Still, and Brown's kick made it 14-0 with 11:22 still left in the half.

Field position, a sticky defense, and momentum gave the Bobcats a couple more scoring opportunities before the half-time, but they all failed on penalties and occasional losses. One factor which carried the whole game, though, was the statistic that Hope lost no fumbles whatsoever.

Prescott's only real threat didn't last long. On their second possession of the third quarter, the Wolves racked up a quick first down and had a third and one play at the Hope 48. Here it all ended, as a loose ball was gathered in by safety Sidney Waller at the 44, which was the blast-off point for a 56-yard scoring drive.

This time things slowed down inside the 30, however, and the Bobcats were forced into a fourth down with nine yards to go for a first down with the ball at the Prescott 22.

It was the perfect time for a perfect play added just for the Curley Wolves, and it worked. Artis Martin took a pitchout and sprinted right, then stopped and wobbled an accurate pass into Newton's hands for the 22-yard tally. Brown kicked the PAT with the third quarter ended, and 21-0 looked nice to local fans.

Soon afterwards they began leaving, after Hope ran off an impressive 77-yard march for the final TD. Martin scored his third six-pointer of the season on a three-yard blast, and Brown's wide kick left the score at 27-0.

Defensively, the Bobcats came up with a satisfying shutout and two interceptions in the effort. Waller recovered a fumble and picked off a Sandy Gautsche pass, and end Ronny Brown added an interception to his good performance otherwise. Once again sophomore linebacker Steve Harris was outstanding, getting in on about 16 tackles.

Tackle Jim Alford suffered a pulled muscle in his lower leg in the second quarter, and though he played the remainder of the game he may sit out a practice or two this week to let it heal. Artis Martin went down in the first half also after a hard blow to the ribs, but missed only five plays before reentering.

Possibly enlazed by the win, the Hope "B" Lizards return to action this evening, traveling to Magnolia for a game at 7:15 p.m. The Panthers of Magnolia will be apprehensive this week, with their 4-AA East opener against unbeaten Camden this Friday.

Jets Defeat O.J. and the Buffalo Bills

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

They turned out in record numbers—46,165—at Buffalo's War Memorial Stadium Sunday to see Joe Namath's arm and O. J. Simpson's legs. The anatomy left something to be desired, but no one was demanding his money back.

New York's Namath, the pride of Broadway, passed for one touchdown and Buffalo's Simpson ran for one in his pro debut as the world champion Jets turned back the stubborn Bills 33-19 in their American Football League opener.

Elsewhere in the AFL, Oakland held off Houston 21-17, Kansas City trounced San Diego 27-0, Denver wallowed Boston 35-7 and Cincinnati topped Miami 27-21.

The Bengals' victory was marred by the death of 29-year-old linebacker Frank Buncom, who suffered an early-morning heart attack in his hotel room brought on by a blood clot on the lung.

The National Football League, which doesn't open its regular season for another week, finished its pre-season schedule with five games. On Sunday, Baltimore beat Dallas 23-7 and Philadelphia surprised Washington 26-17. Saturday, it was Green Bay 38, Atlanta 24; Minnesota 23, Cleveland 16 and Los Angeles 31, San Francisco 28.

Namath's statistics showed only seven completions in 19 attempts—he was intercepted three times—for 157 yards. Simpson, the rich rookie from Southern Cal, carried 10 times for 35 yards, caught two passes for 64 and returned three kick-offs for 68. His touchdown came on an eight-yard run.

"Make up anything you want to about O.J. and write it," Namath said. "I can't say enough good things about him. He's going to be great."

"I wasn't satisfied," Simpson countered. "I picked up a cold Saturday and it bothered me early in the game. And, I'll tell you, now that they're playing for real it's a lot harder."

After Namath's 60-yard scoring pass to Don Maynard and Jim Turner's four field goals gave the Jets a 19-3 lead, the Bills almost turned the game around. They managed a 19-all tie, but Matt Snell put the Jets ahead again on an 11-yard touchdown run with 7½ minutes left and linebacker Paul Crane picked off a Jack Kemp pass and ran 23 yards for another TD.

Darley Lamonia snapped out of the doldrums with a 64-yard pass to Warren Wells in the fourth period that gave Oakland a come-from-behind victory over Houston. Two touchdowns by Charlie Smith had given the Raiders a 14-0 lead but the Oilers went ahead in the final period on a 15-yard pass from Pete Beathard to Jerry Levias.

The Oilers missed a chance to win it when Levias dropped a pass in the clear shortly after Wells' tally.

Len Dawson's 55-yard touchdown pass to Otis Taylor and four interceptions powered Kansas City past San Diego. Dawson hit Taylor on the first play from scrimmage after the Chargers had trimmed the Chiefs' lead to 13-0.

Denver quarterback Steve Tensi enjoyed one of his finest days with three touchdown passes as the Broncos jolted the Patriots under new coach Clive Rush.

Boston quarterback Mike Taliaferro was intercepted four times, with two of the steals setting up Dwyer touchdowns.

Rookie Grego Cook passed for two touchdowns and Cincinnati's defense held off a late Miami rally as the Bengals gave Paul Brown his 300th coaching victory in a career spanning 35 years.

In Sunday's NFL exhibitions, Philadelphia came from behind with 12 points in the third period to beat Washington while in a nationally televised night contest Baltimore intercepted four of Roger Staubach's passes and trimmed Dallas.

Lose 10 lbs. in 10 days on Grapefruit Diet

HOLLYWOOD, CALIF. (Special) — This is the revolutionary grapefruit diet that everyone is suddenly talking about. Thousands of copies have been passed from hand to hand in factories, plants and offices throughout the U.S.

Because this diet really works. We have testimonials reporting on its success. If you follow it exactly, you should lose 10 pounds in 10 days. No weight loss in the first four days but you will suddenly drop 5 pounds on the 5th day. Thereafter lose one pound a day until the 10th day. Then you will lose 1 1/2 pounds every two days until you get down to your proper weight. Best of all, there will be no hunger pangs. Revised and enlarged, this diet lets you stuff yourself with formerly "forbidden" foods, such as steaks trimmed with fat, roast or fried chicken, gravies, mayonnaise, lobster swimming in butter, bacon fat, sausages and scrambled eggs and still lose weight. The secret behind this "quick weight loss" diet is simple. Fat does not form fat. And the grapefruit juice in this diet acts as a catalyst (the "trigger"), to start the fat burning process. You stuff yourself on the permitted food listed in the diet plan, and still lose weight. A copy of this startling successful diet can be obtained by sending $2 to

Money-back guarantee. If after trying the diet you have not lost 7 pounds in the first seven days, another 6 pounds in the next 7 days, and 1 1/2 pounds every two days thereafter, simply return the diet plan and your $2 will be refunded promptly and without argument. Tear out this message as a reminder. Decide now to regain the trim attractive figure of your youth.

Farm Boy Has Earned Place in Big Race

By BLOYS BRITT
AP Auto Racing Writer

TALLADEGA, Ala. (AP) — Richard Brickhouse, a farm boy who looks like a football tackle, earned himself a place in stock car racing history Sunday because he didn't want to miss the biggest opportunity of his life.

Brickhouse won the inaugural Talladega 500-mile race at the massive 2.66-mile Alabama International Speedway and collected more money than he had ever seen in his life—$25,000.

Opportunity for Brickhouse came after 30 of NASCAR's top drivers, including all but one of those assigned to factory-backed cars, staged the first boycott in the history of the sport. They claimed the new speedway was unsafe at the speeds they would have to run to be competitive.

Brickhouse was a member of the newly formed Professional Drivers Association which staged the walkout. He was the only member who decided to ignore the boycott, and he did it because he had been offered a shiny new, purple and white Dodge Daytona Charger race car that had lapped the big speedway at a fraction under 200 miles per hour in practice.

"I spent most of Saturday night sizing up what I would give up," said the 29-year-old blond who owns a 350-acre farm in eastern North Carolina. "I didn't like their attitude, and I decided to pull out of the PDA. I figured this was a golden opportunity for me to win a race."

And win it Brickhouse did. He was in and out of the lead all day, but never far from it. With 10 laps to go, he roared ahead of another rookie, Jim Vandiver of Charlotte, N. C.,

Henderson Finally Licks Millsaps

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Tommy Hart, Henderson's do-everything quarterback did his thing, but he needed help from Charlie Cobb before the Reddies were assured of a 27-16 victory over Millsaps College Saturday night.

In other AIC action, Arkansas Tech stepped out of its class and was beaten by Abilene Christian College 35-17 and Southern State sneaked past Southeastern Oklahoma 7-6.

Hart scored one touchdown and passed for another as the Reddies, one of the favorites in the AICN built up a 21-7 half-time lead.

Millsaps cut the margin to five points with a touchdown and a field goal before Cobb returned a kickoff 90 yards for the clinching touchdown in the fourth period.

With the aid of a blocked punt, Tech got off to a 7-0 lead, but ACC quarterback Jim Lindsey directed ACC to a 21-7 half-time lead.

Tech played without fullback Bill Nelson, a 200-pounder who sprained an ankle Friday night. Sophomore tailback Larry Brown scored both of Tech's touchdowns.

Sonny Kennedy's extra point lifted Southern State past Southeastern Oklahoma. Southeastern had a 6-0 halftime lead but fullback James Channel capped a 78-yard drive with a one-yard plunge on the first play of the fourth period.

Will Name Captains for First Game

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Coach Frank Broyles is scheduled to name game captains this afternoon for Arkansas' opener Saturday against Oklahoma State at Little Rock.

Broyles said Saturday that the Razorbacks would practice in pads today and Tuesday and then work out Wednesday and Thursday in sweat clothes.

and was never seriously challenged as a crowd of 65,000 shouted its approval. He averaged 153.778 miles per hour for the distance.

Despite the boycott, France was able to put a field of 37 cars together. It included half a dozen competitive cars, able to tour the steeply banked course at speeds in the 185-195 range.

In other races, Gary Bettenhausen set a world record with his average speed of 99.498 miles per hour Sunday in winning a 50-lap U.S. Auto Club sprint car race at Indiana's Winchester Speedway. USAC officials said the speed was the best ever for 50 laps on a half-mile track.

In Brainerd, Minn., Dan Gurney ran out of gas in the first 100 mile race and finished second but he won the second race and grabbed the overall top money of $8,705 in the U.S. Auto Club Indy car races at Donnybrook International Speedway.

Gordon Johncock won the first race. Gurney's winning time in the second was 113.925 miles per hour.

New Zealanders Dennis Hulme and Bruce McLaren swept to a 1-2 finish in the $56,700 Bridgehampton Grand Prix in New York. The New Zealanders averaged 114.45 miles per hour most of the race and Hulme set a record lap of 118.87 miles per hour late in the race. Jo Siffert of Switzerland finished third.

Amaya Scores a Knockout
MONTERREY, Mexico (AP) — Antonio Amaya, second-ranked junior lightweight from Panama, scored a 10-round decision over Vicente Garcia, Mexican featherweight champion, Sunday night.

OCEAN SHORES, Wash. (AP) — The experience gained in 11 years as a professional golfer helped Kathy Whitworth fight off a bad case of the double bogies Sunday and rally to win the $22,000 Wendell West Women's Open Golf Tournament.

Tall Kathy finished the day with a par-72 and a 54-hole total of 213 to edge Judy Tostemire Rankin by a stroke.

"That last three-foot putt was a sort of a nervous par," Kathy admitted. "I thought I'd really had it when I took those double bogie shots at 12 and 13, but I had a little talk with myself and settled down."

The triumph helped Miss Whitworth close the money margin on Carol Mann, who finished sixth with a 218 total to earn $1,085 and boost her 1969 tourney income to $40,382, Kathy, posting her sixth victory of the year and the 52nd of her career.

Jim: "Here is an interesting hand from a New Orleans reader. West opened the ace of diamonds against his four-spade contract and shifted to the deuce of clubs in spite of receiving the king of diamonds from his partner. Our correspondent decided that the shift indicated a singleton club and promptly led out ace and another trump. West got in with the king and led a second diamond, whereupon his partner gave him a club ruff and defeated the contract. He wants to know what we think of his play."

Oswald: "South could have made his contract by a very complicated play. He would have to cash dummy's ace and king of hearts and then play a second diamond. East could now play a club which West could ruff, but West would then have to lead away from the king of spades or play a red card which declarer could trump in his hand, enabling him to take the spade finesse and make his contract."

Jim: "That play will work because West holds the spade king but it would fail miserably if East held it. The play taken by our reader would work, except against the actual distribution or against all four spades in the West hand. Do you want to give an opinion as to which play should be made?"

Oswald: "No, I don't, but I will. I would have made the winning play if I were declarer on the theory that West would have continued diamonds if he didn't hold the king of spades. I wouldn't guarantee my decision as being correct, but I would have made it."

RESERVE POLICE

BRONKHORSTSPRUIT, South Africa (AP) — The South African police can supplement its permanent force of 34,000 men by more than 17,000 reservists, Police Minister Lourens Muller said here. Of the 17,480 reservists listed at the end of July 7, 885 are men who can help the police in their free time in cases of emergency or large scale crime. Reservists paid to do short periods of full time duty number 5,784 and another 3,028 are employees of local authorities required to guard key industries. The remaining 783 assist police in cases of unrest in country areas.

THE WELL CHILD

It's Safe for Child To Set Own Sleep Pattern

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—My 4-month-old daughter has enjoyed being awake six to 10 hours a day from the time she was born. Does this mean that she will be overactive as she grows older? Is any treatment necessary?

A—Most babies sleep 16 to 20 hours a day in the first week, then taper off to 15 hours a day by the time they are 16 weeks old. But there is room for a wider variation from these averages. If your daughter is happy, is gaining weight and does not seem to be unduly nervous, you can safely let her set her own sleep pattern. There is no reason to believe that this will affect the degree of her activity one way or another as she grows older.

No treatment is required. And above all, don't give her sedatives to make her sleep longer.

Q—Our son, 15, falls asleep a lot in school or anywhere. He weighs 220 pounds but the doctor says he doesn't have any glandular disease. What could cause him to sleep that way and is there any treatment for it?

A—If your son also sleeps well at night he may have a condition called narcolepsy. If so, amphetamine may help him.

Q—My niece's son, 8 1/2, has frequent nightmares. What could cause them and is there any cure?

A—Nightmares are common in children between the ages 3 and 8 and in children who are emotional or in poor health. The best treatment is for the parents to make his waking environment as calm as possible. Often the nightmares are caused by the child being overtired. It may help to let him take a short nap before supper or go to bed a little earlier and to avoid exciting television programs in the evening or roughhousing before bedtime. A warm bath before retiring may also help.

When he cries out, one of his parents should go to him and find out what was frightening him, then explain that it was all a bad dream and that everything is all right.

Q—Is there any organization that provides information on cerebral palsy?

A—Yes. The United Cerebral Palsy Association, 321 West 44th St., New York, N.Y. 10036.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

One of the forgotten tales of WWII is the tragic death of the renowned "Desert Fox" German Field Marshal Rommel. He was recovering from a wound at his home when visited by two members of the German High Command on Oct. 14, 1944. The World Almanac notes. He was accused of complicity in the plot against Hitler and given the choice of death by poison or trial by the People's Court. He took poison and died near Ulm, Germany, later that day.

Bikini Atoll Folks Can Return Now

By GEORGE ZUCKER Associated Press Writer

BIKINI ATOLL (AP) — The first woman's land of the atomic age is ready to welcome back its people.

The Atomic Energy Commission reports this isolated Pacific atoll, ravaged by a dozen years of nuclear testing, has less radioactivity today than the U.S. mainland.

"We can't say there is absolutely no radiation danger," says AEC physicist Tommy McCraw, "but if there is we can't find it."

McCraw was among a team of experts who toured the blasted atoll last weekend with a group of American and foreign newsmen. He said his atomic counter showed only faint signs of radioactivity, "less than in Denver, Colo."

Stripped of vegetation and badly scarred by 23 thermonuclear detonations between 1946 and 1958, the islands have sloughed off all visible effects of their former devastation.

Lush foliage has returned to the meager string of islands, some 2,500 miles west of Hawaii, and its lagoons are swimming pool clear and bountiful.

The resorted scrap metal and debris that littered the white sand beaches for more than 20 years are gone. A small force of U.S. military and civilian workers has been cleaning up the atoll since mid-February. The 187 Bikinians who were evacuated amid weeping farewells on March 7, 1946, have since grown to 550 and most are eager to return.

The displaced Bikinians have been eking out a living on the tiny island of Kili, in the southern Marshalls.

Although rich in rainfall, Kili has no lagoon or sheltered sea approach. The islanders have been earning about $20,000 annually through the sale of copra and ladies' handbags made of coconut fiber.

Thirty Bikinians will arrive here next month to help plant coconuts, breadfruit and pandanus, making ready for the return of the others.

McCraw, 41, of Germantown, Md., said considerable testing has been conducted to determine the extent of lingering radioactivity.

"There is virtually no radiation left," he said, "and we can find no discernible effect on either plant or animal life."

McCraw used an atomic counter to sample radioactivity on the island of Airukiraru, across the channel from Enyu in the atoll's southern complex where 13 nuclear shots were fired from barges and air drops.

It registered slightly below two microroentgens.

"An average reading on the U.S. mainland," he said, "would range from 10 to 20 microroentgens."

McCraw said the reason for the low reading is that Bikini atoll rose from living coral reefs and has little naturally occurring radioactivity.

Responsibility for restoring and resettling Bikini atoll is shared by the Department of Defense, the AEC and the Interior Department.

The cleanup began Feb. 17 under the direction of the Defense Atomic Support Agency.

They established a tent city on Enyu, second largest island in the atoll, and within a week had cleared the tangle of scrub vegetation from the island's 4,600-foot airstrip, unused for a decade.

The first phase of the $3.3-million restoration project was the removal of scrap metal and other industrial junk.

Three hundred truckloads of scrap, all of it rusted or radioactive, were dumped into the sea or buried.

Salvageable scrap, including more than 100 miles of copper cable which link all of the atoll's 25 islands, will be left for the Bikinians to use or sell.

When the DASA task force completes its work on Oct. 1, the Bikinians will fall heir to the tent city, the airstrip, a harbor, two barges and three landing craft.

George Nakanishi, 48-year-old Hawaiian who serves as district director of agriculture for the U.S. trust territory, has set up a coconut nursery which eventually will yield 100,000 coconut palms to be replanted on the islands of Bikini and Enyu.

"Under the Japanese administration prior to 1945," says Nakanishi, "the Bikinians were producing 30 tons of copra annually. This total should rise to 30 tons a month within the next 10 years."

Rally Goes on But Without Sweet Willie

FORREST CITY, Ark. (AP)

— A freedom rally, scheduled by Lance "Sweet Willie Wine" Watson, went off as planned here Sunday, but Watson was not present.

Watson, the leader of a black militant Memphis group known as the Invaders, was arrested when he stepped off an airplane at the Little Rock airport Sunday afternoon.

Watson, 31, was arrested on a charge of being disorderly, but was released and returned to Memphis after $1,000 bond was posted at Forrest City.

Col. Ralph Scott, director of the State Police, said Watson's supporters prearranged the arrest.

Scott said he received a telegram from O. W. Pickett of brings $100 a ton.

The U.S. government plans to build a school house, a community house and a warehouse for the Bikinians. A refurbished chapel already is in use on Enyu.

Also on the drawing boards are 60 three-bedroom homes the government will build for the returning islanders.

Bikini leaders asked that they be of cinderblock construction with aluminum roofs.

"Permanency is what they want," Nakanishi said. "Something solid."

Memphis, a member of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, saying he feared for Watson's life.

Scott said he told Pickett he felt the State Police were entitled to any information concerning a threat to Watson's life and that Watson should be obligated to follow any State Police travel recommendations.

Scott said at that time that he did not know a warrant had been issued by Forrest City City Atty. Knox Kinney.

He said that before he received the time and date of Watson's arrival he informed Pickett that the warrant had been issued. He said he told Pickett that Watson would be arrested on sight, but that he was still informed of Watson's arrival time.

"They indicated to us that he wanted to come to Arkansas to surrender," Scott said. "We didn't have him under surveillance. We didn't have any way to know he would be on that plane unless they had told us."

"I personally think this was a face-saving thing they wanted us to do," Scott said. "The rally evidently fell flat and I think they knew it was going to."

Watson said at Little Rock that the Invaders would sponsor another rally at Forrest City "in the very near future." He also said he planned a "mule train march" along the same route of his recent "walk against fear" through Eastern Arkansas.

The charge against Watson arose out of an altercation Aug. 26 during which he was roughed by angry whites. He received a broken elbow during the altercation.

Monday, September 15, 1969

Watson was jailed at Little Rock for less than an hour before Florence Clay, Negro owner of a Forrest City funeral home, made the peace bond.

He sent word that he would not be able to attend the rally. Pickett told a crowd of about 500 that Watson said he was committed to Forrest City and committed to return. Pickett quoted Watson as saying that he would come to Forrest City when litigation is completed on "all those trumped up charges against him."

"Even if he has to serve you in exile, he's going to be on the case," Pickett said.

The only incident at the rally occurred when members of the crowd began booing one Negro whom authorities said asked for police protection. Officers drove the man to the police station.

A few State Police and Forrest City officers were at the rally and two National Guard helicopters circled overhead. National Guardsmen were placed on standby because of the rally.

Pickett also told the crowd that Watson had told him he could not understand why leaders of the Committee for Peaceful Coexistence indefinitely postponed a proposed "poor people's march" through Eastern Arkansas. Pickett also said Watson felt that the Rev. Cato Brooks, cochairman of the committee, "has left and deserted you."

Trade Barriers With Soviet Bloc Fading

By ARTHUR L. GAVSHON Associated Press Writer

LONDON (AP) — The United States and 14 allied countries are lowering their barriers on exports of strategic products to the Soviet bloc. But the bans are staying up for trade with the Asian Communist governments and Albania.

Diplomats reported Sunday that concessions to be announced next month will not be extended to Communist China, to Albania, its only European ally, or to North Vietnam and North Korea.

The embargo on munitions and other war weapons remains.

Informants said the prospect of improved economic and political relations with the East European Communists, the diminishing technological gap between them and the Western powers, and the deep-seated allied suspicion of China's military intentions influenced the decision for to ease the controls.

Informants said the previously banned items which the Soviet bloc now will be able to buy include certain types of computers, rare metals and their alloys, chemical and petroleum equipment, a wide range of industrial, electrical and transport goods, and certain categories of electronic and precision instruments.

The international agreement came in months of negotiations by the group in Paris known as the Coordinating Committee, made up of representatives of all North Atlantic Treaty Organization countries except Iceland, plus Japan.

Japan favored concessions to Red China also, but finally agreed with the other members that it be excluded. The Japanese government is under pressure from political and industrial interests that want access to the big Chinese market or believe the ban smacks of discrimination against Asians.

The committee's purpose is to coordinate policies with the intention of denying Communist would strengthen their war potential.

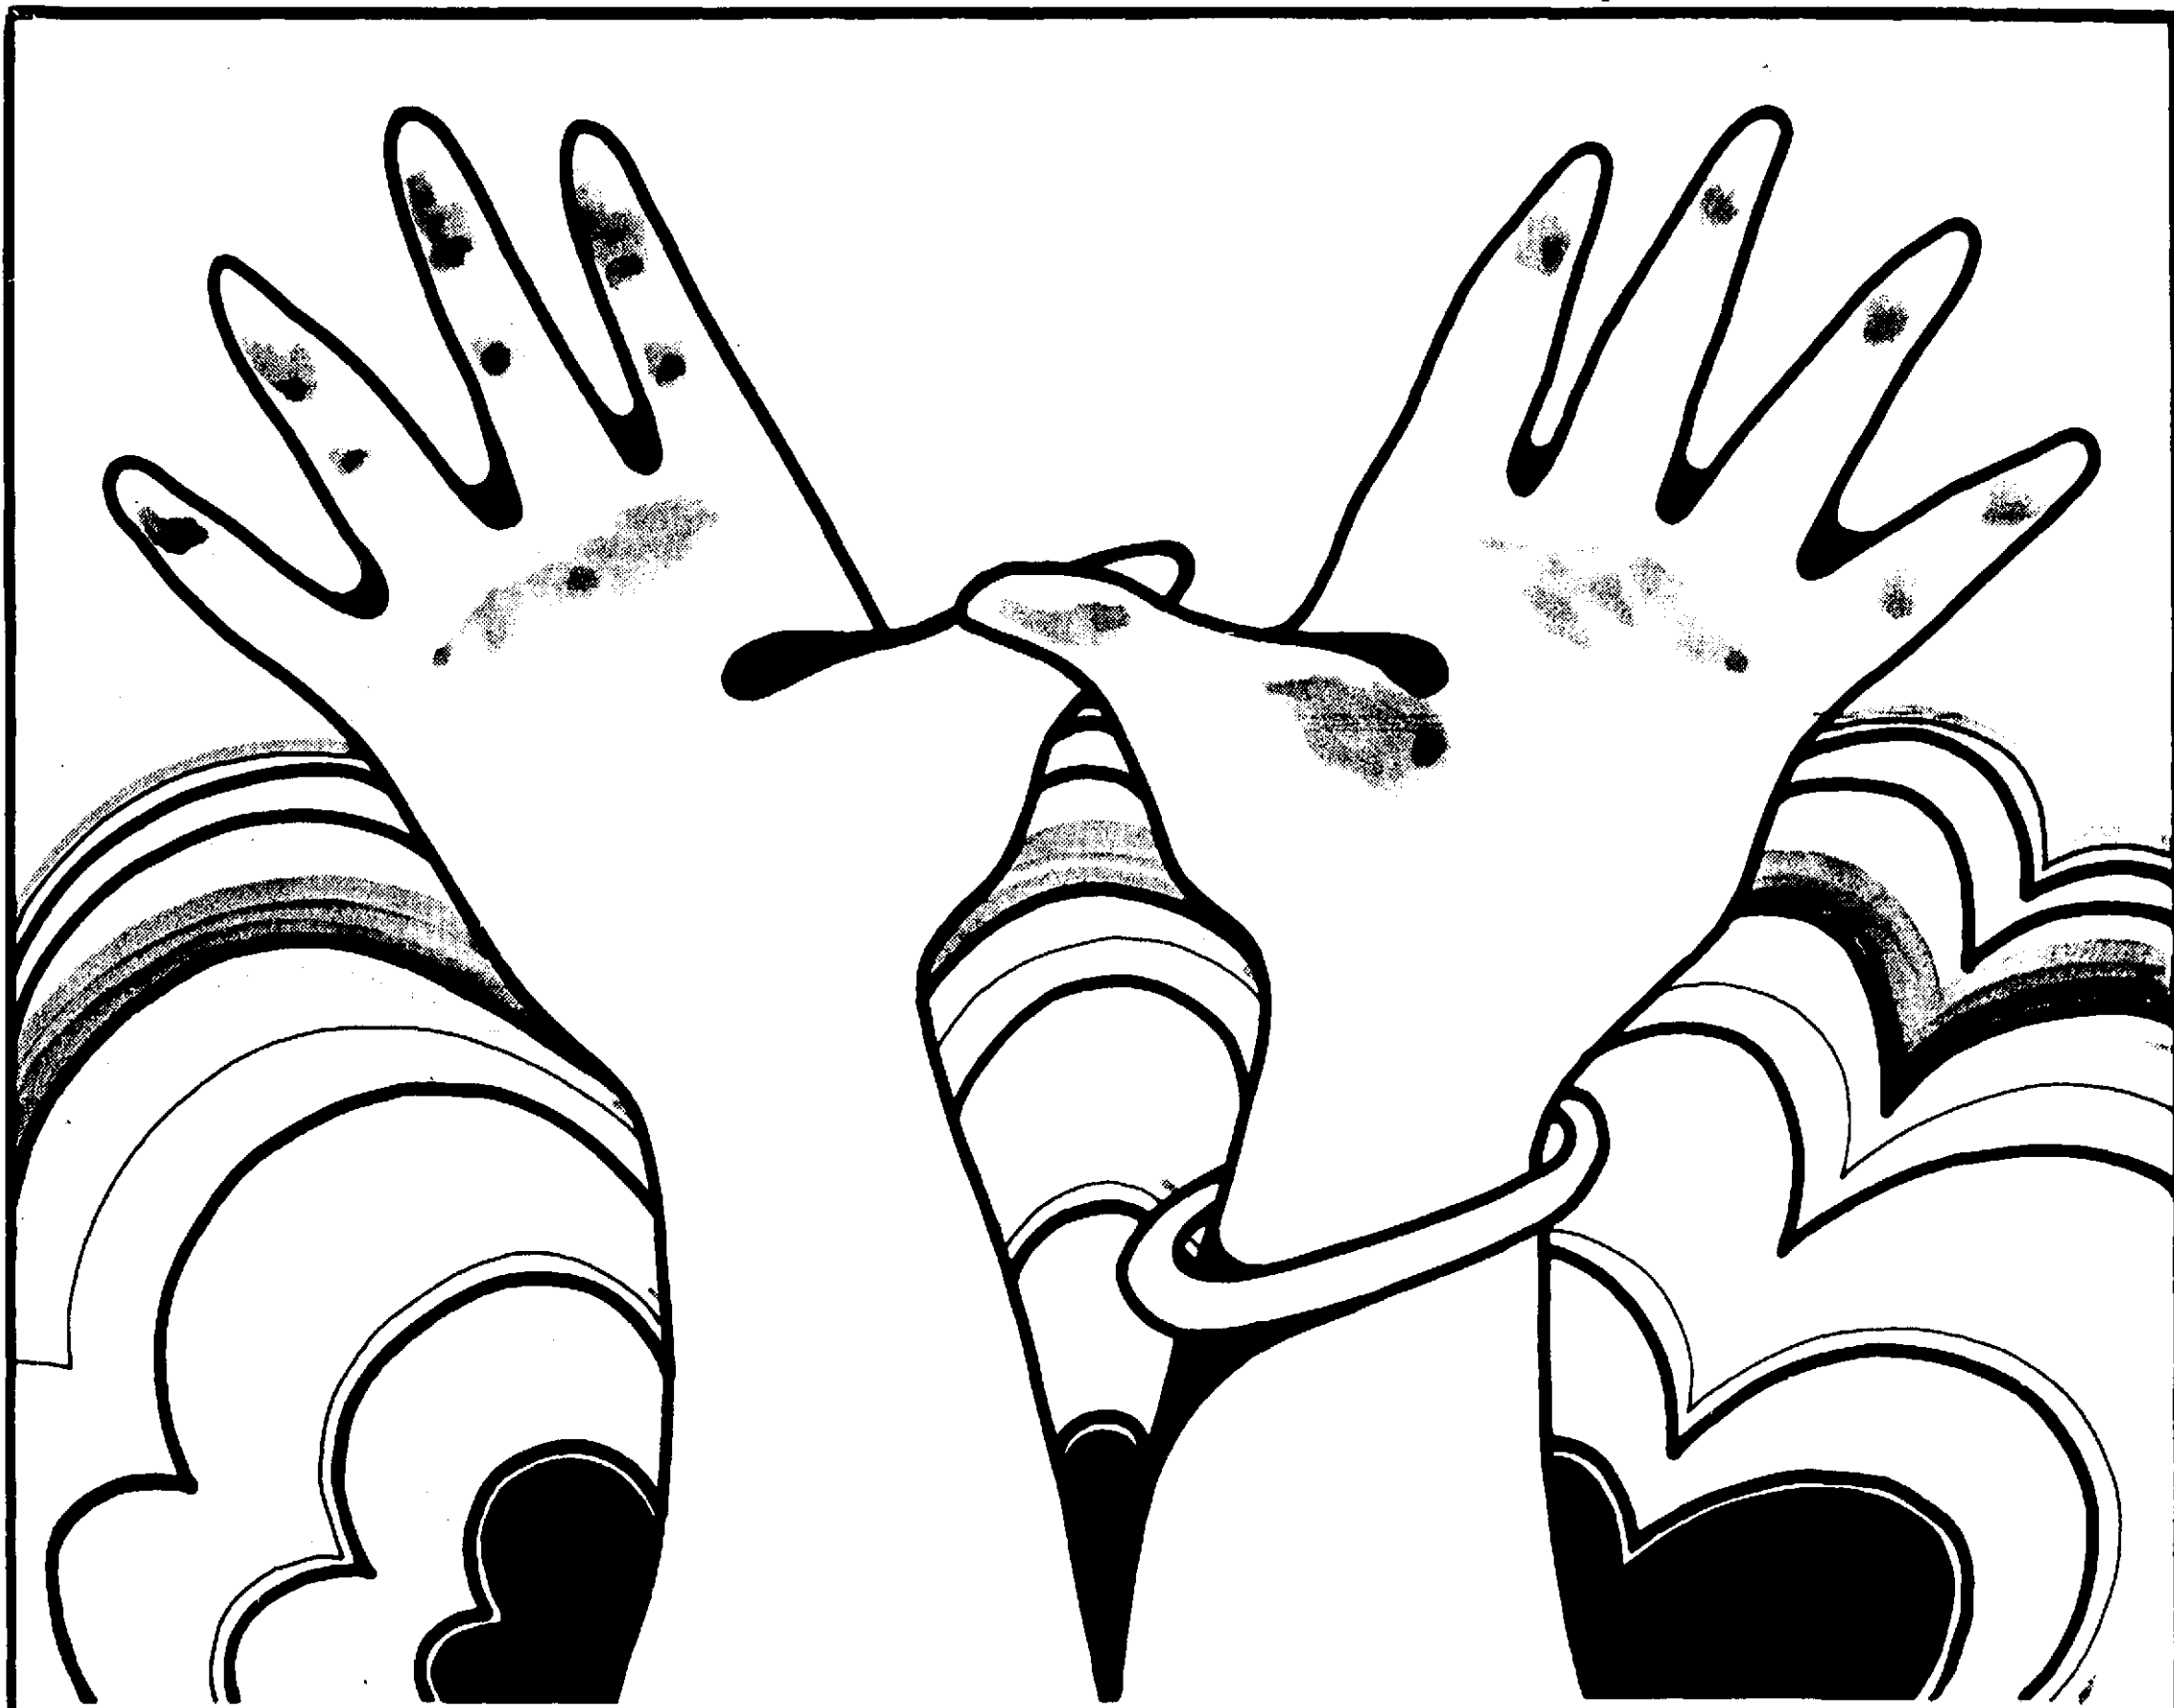

Member governments control the export of agreed items on a voluntary basis according to their own constitutional processing.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Don Gault and Charles Leigh hooked up on a 15-yard touchdown pass play with 11 seconds remaining to life New Jersey to a 38-35 victory over the Arkansas Diamonds here Sunday in a Continental Football League game.

Robby Tiner's short scoring run had given the Diamonds a 35-31 lead with 1:16 remaining. A 34-yard pass from Tiner to Tommy Trantham set up the Diamonds' final score.

The Jays jumped off to 14-0 but the Diamonds cut it to 14-6 on a 38-yard scoring pass from Tiner to Tommy Burnett.

Bobcats Claw Curly Wolves 27 to 0 Before Capacity Crowd In Opener

Hope Scores Each Period For Victory

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports-Writer

And the Cannon roared. So began a new campaign we shall call "Happiness '69", as the Hope Bobcats ripped the Prescott Curly Wolves 27-0 before an overflow crowd in the home opener Friday night at Hammons Stadium.

Evening the Bobcats' record at 1-1 the victory was a combination of revenge, desire, and school spirit. A mid-day pep assembly at Jones Field House, which was packed by the HHS student body, shook the rafters and injected inspiration into the squad which came out from the outset.

Tailback Artis Martin was the hero, running for two touchdowns and passing for another while gaining 117 yards rushing on 21 carries. And the defense, true to this writer's prediction, produced the shutout win while chowing up the Curly Wolves' cloud of dust offense.

Receiving the opening kickoff, the Bobcats picked up a quick first down before filtering. Senior end David Still booted a 45-yard punt with no return, though, and Prescott had to start from their own 15. The Wolves couldn't move, as they only had one first down in the first half, and had to punt it back.

Penalties delayed the play twice, but on the third try Prescott's Mike Payne kicked it only 19 yards and out-of-bounds at the Wolves' 39. With 6:46 left in the quarter, the Cats started the first of four scoring drives, one in each period.

Quarterback Ronnie Massaneli ended a pass rush on the second play and raced 14 yards to the 22 and a first down, and on the next play a personal foul against Prescott gave Hope a first and goal at the eight. Two runs moved the ball to the three, but on third down Artis Martin barged over on a three-yard play for the initial TD.

Ronny Brown kicked the PAT, and the 7-0 lead looked fine with 4:27 showing in the opening period.

On defense again, the Bobcats turned on the fire and shoved Prescott back, when another short punt by Payne set up the Hope offense at its own 46 and 2:34 left in the quarter.

Artis Martin started the drive with a 14-yard scamper, and Roger Newton made another first down on an eight-yard carry to the Prescott 32. Now Massaneli rolled around right end for nine more to the 23, and Artis got the first down at the 18.

On the pro sweep, Artis ran eight yards to the seven for a first and goal, but the quarter ended with 2nd and five. Two plays later, Massaneli sprinted right and fired a four-yard scoring strike to end David Still with 11:22 left in the half, and Brown's kick made it 14-0.

For the remainder of the half, Hope threatened to score again while Prescott was stymied on offense. At intermission the count was still 14-0, but in the statistics the Bobcats had a landslide.

The Curly Wolves came back from the halftime ready to play, and look over at their own 32 after a punt exchange. In their best offensive of the night, the Wolves used halfbacks Glen Childers and Timmy Grimes to move out a first down at the 43, and soon afterward had a third and one situation from the Hope 48.

Childers and QB Sandy Gautsche missed connections on the handoff, and Bobcat safety Sidney Waller jumped on the loose pigskin at the Hope 45 to ruin the rejuvenating Prescott momentum and reassert the Bobcats' domination. With 4:21 left in the third quarter, the Cats took off toward the end zone.

By plays in the drive were a three-yard sneak by Massaneli for a first down at the Prescott 44, several blasts by Artis Martin, and a ten-yard option keeper by Massaneli which put the ball at the Curly Wolves' 23-yard stripe.

Here the advance bogged down, with an eight-yard loss setting up a 4th and nine play from the 22 and six seconds left in the third segment. On the call Martin took a pitchout and headed to the right, drawing the whole Prescott defense toward him.

Suddenly the fleet tailback stopped dead, and lobbed a 22-yard aerial to flankerback Roger Newton in the end zone for the TD on the last play of the period. Once more Brown's kick was good, making the Hope lead rise to 21-0.

The Curly Wolves came back for a quick first down on a personal foul call on the Cats, but once more the Hope defense rose to the occasion and forced a punt.

Martin returned the kick 13 yards to the Bobcat 23 with 9:22 left in the game, and the last movement to paydirt was underway. On the fifth play Massaneli hit Still for 30 yards to the Wolves' 37, then the agile quarterback sped up the middle for 14 more to the 23.

On 2nd and 12, Artis Martin broke outside from the 25 and sailed to the four, where a piling infraction against Prescott moved it to the two. Climaxing the 77-yard, nine-play drive, Artis then sped over from two yards away for the final tally with 5:32 left. Brown's kick was ruled no good, but the happy 27-0 verdict was cast.

From that point substitutes took over for Hope and played the rest of the way, actually getting the ball on an interception and doing competently to the final gun.

Afterwards, Head Coach Ronnie Higgins exalted his defense, which never allowed Prescott within 40 yards of a score. He commented on the improvements in offensive blocking and pass protection, which resulted in a balanced and varied attack throughout the game.

Defensively, commendation went to linebackers Steve Harris and Larry McWilliams, tackle Lynn Norton, and end Ronny Brown, but the entire remainder of the unit played superlative football in thwarting the Prescott offense. Besides Martin's 117 yards, Massaneli piled up 73 more on 12 runs, and Gary Jones garnered 22 yards on six trips. Timmy Grimes led Prescott with 26 yards on 11 carries.

With the big win now a reality, the Bobcats look ahead to the DeQueen Leopards next Friday night away from home. It will be another must game for the Cats, but Happiness '69 is in high gear for good.

Also, the "B" Lizards return to action on Monday evening, taking a road trip to Magnolia for a 7:15 p.m. kickoff. The Lizards are 0-1 so far, after a 20-6 loss to Camden last week.

Mets Take 2 From Pirates In Stretch

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer

Amazing!

That was how Casey Stengel, their first manager, used to describe the New York Mets. The only thing was when Casey said it, the adjective didn't really fit. Now... well, now the Mets have a magic number and that rates an "amazing."

Chicago's staggering Cubs broke an eight-game losing streak Friday night, beating St. Louis 5-1. Yet the Cubs lost ground in the National League East to the rampaging Mets, who beat Pittsburgh twice by 1-0 scores with the only runs in each game being driven in by winning pitchers Jerry Koosman and Don Cardwell.

Now that's amazing. The doubleheader sweep opened the Mets' lead to 2 1/2 games over the Cubs, stretched their winning streak to nine games and reduced their magic number to 16. The last three victories have been shutouts and the New York pitching staff has not allowed a run in the last 34 innings.

Elsewhere in the National League, Montreal shut out Philadelphia 4-0, Atlanta edged Houston 4-3, San Francisco blanked Cincinnati 1-0 and Los Angeles took San Diego 5-3.

In the American League, Baltimore clinched a tie for the East Division pennant by edging Cleveland 2-1, while Washington was knocking off Detroit 4-3; Minnesota blanked Kansas City 3-0; Oakland whacked Chicago 12-4; New York split a doubleheader with Boston, winning 5-3 before losing 4-3; and Seattle beat California 4-1 and they played to a 1-1 tie in the nightcap halted by rain after 9 1/2 innings.

Koosman pitched a three-hitter in the first game against the Pirates and collected his first RBI of the season with a fifth inning single off loser Bob Moose that drove in Bobby Pelf.

The single was Koosman's fourth hit this season and the first one against any pitcher other than San Diego's Clay Kirby. The RBI was the fifth of Koosman's major league career.

The second game was virtually a repeat of the first with Cardwell following Bud Harrelson's second inning double with a run-scoring single and then making the slim margin stand up. Cardwell allowed four hits in the eight innings he worked and Tug McGraw came on to nail down the victory with a scoreless ninth.

Ernie Banks was the offensive hero for the Cubs. Banks singled Chicago's tying run home in the seventh inning and then unloaded a three-run double as the Cubs scored four runs to take the lead in the eighth. Bill Hands pitched a seven-hitter and started the Cubs' tie-breaking rally in the eighth with a single.

Another pitcher, George Stone, played a major offensive role in Atlanta's victory over Houston. Stone smashed a two-run homer and got airtight relief help from newly-acquired Hoyt Wilhelm to set down the Astros. The homer was the first extra base hit of Stone's career.

Wilhelm balled him out in the eighth when the Astros scored their three runs and the veteran reliever shut Houston out in the ninth for his second save with the Braves. The victory allowed Atlanta to take over first place in the West Division.

Bill Stoneman pitched a five-hitter for his fifth shutout of the season, blanking Philadelphia for Montreal. Gary Sutherland drove in two of the Expo runs and scored another.

Juan Marichal allowed only one hit—a single by Tommy Helms—and set down the Reds, dropping Cincinnati from a tie for first place to third in the torrid West race. The only run of the game was driven in on a single by Hal Lanier.

Los Angeles pushed across two runs in the eighth inning to beat the pesky Padres, who had taken four straight from the Dodgers last weekend. Two-out singles in the eighth innings by Ted Sizemore, Bill Singer, Maury Wills and Manny Mota broke a 3-3 tie.
